

DOLE 12 employees get On-Boarding seminar

Koronadal City- Employees of the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) 12 gathered and participated in the recently concluded On-Boarding Orientation held at Sheila's Park Family Resto last October 2, 2018, this city.

Key personnel from DOLE 12 shared topics on DOLE Programs and Services, Appreciation of ISO 9001:2015, Overview on the Conduct of Basic Internal Quality Audit Training, Productivity and Soft Skills in the Workplace, Code of Conduct for DOLE Officials and Employees, and other Human Resource and Administrative regulations.

"I have learned a lot from this orientation, especially on right attitude that a government employee must possess," said Marlene Zaragoza.

In his message, DOLE 12 Regional Director Sisinio B. Cano, CESO IV emphasized the importance of values formation to all the employees. He added that everyone has an obligation and responsibility to uphold the code of ethics governing public servants.

"We must value being hired and must be proud as DOLE employee since there are a lot of graduates looking for a job nowadays," said RD Cano.

On-boarding program is a foundational program designed to orient employees on being a civil service provider. The course serves as a venue to clarify respective roles, accountabilities, and know more about individual rights, benefits, and privileges being a DOLE employee.
