Department of Labor and Employment

Employment Guide for Students and Jobseekers
Introduction

This Employment Guide for Students and Jobseekers brings together in one publication the various programs and services of the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) that correspond to cycles of wage employment and self-employment. This Guide is devised as a useful, handy and reader-friendly material to help students and jobseekers start their employment options and how to prepare for their choice.

Thus, this Guide is organized along three (3) options for employment: (a) wage employment, whether local or overseas; (b) self-employment; and (c) skills training and upgrading of qualifications. The wage employment option covers the normal job cycle ranging from job application to termination of employment. The self-employment option deals with the entrepreneurship or practice of profession cycle. The skills training and upgrading of qualifications option provides the individuals with the information on how to improve their chances of employability by acquiring skills and furthering their studies.

This Guide is an essential component of the DOLE’s Labor and Employment Education Program.

For a more comprehensive discussion on the various labor and employment education topics, you can visit the DOLE website at www.dole.gov.ph, together with the websites of its attached agencies and bureaus listed hereunder.

Using this Guide

This Employment Guide for Students and Jobseekers contains relevant information on many basic situations in every phase of the job cycle or entrepreneurial or practice of profession cycle in a simplified question-and-answer format. Information is presented in a categorized manner based on the phases of every cycle.

Students and jobseekers have a choice in determining the type of employment they would want to be engaged in. They may opt to apply for wage employment locally or abroad. They may want to be self-employed by establishing their own business. They may also want to avail first of a training or scholarship that would enable them to acquire knowledge or skills and to fulfill the qualification requirements of their desired job.

These options are all explored in the students’ or jobseekers’ situational and first-person perspective.

The Guide is also complete with the latest contact details (including websites and hotlines) of all concerned agencies for easy access to all the needed information.
The Big Picture

Brief

Opportunities and challenges abound in the world of work.

Students and jobseekers, especially the new graduates, can land the best job given the right information and the right chances.

Students and jobseekers want to get the best jobs available. A lucrative career with the best perks available, including opportunities for training, scholarship and advancement is ideal. Careers can be pursued in the domestic or foreign shores.

Students and jobseekers may opt to be the Boss. This can be realized by starting a business or practice of profession.

However, being the Boss and working for a Boss demand time, effort and commitment. Both instances require taking risks and responsibilities. Working for a Boss, in particular, requires submission to management control and being covered by terms and conditions of employment.

Upgrading of skills and qualifications is also an option. Students and jobseekers can opt to pursue technical-vocational or advance courses or take advantage of available scholarships offered by government. Moreover, it may be the most opportune time to get assessed, certified or licensed for preferred skills and professions.

Most often, choosing the right opportunity will spell the distinction between success and failure. All these will boil down to choices.

The Employment Guide for Students and Jobseekers seeks to provide students and jobseekers, including those unemployed, assistance on looking for employment or starting a business. The Guide presents three (3) options: (1) Wage Employment; (2) Self-Employment; and (3) Skills Training and Upgrading of Qualifications. The succeeding sections shall discuss each option in situational forms.
As a reminder, life’s choices will determine triumphs and disappointments. This brings to mind the famous quote of the author Harvey MacKay, “Find something you love to do and you’ll never have to work a day in your life”. It is only a matter of taking the chances and working towards achieving the goals that will spell a difference.

TESD programs are registered under the Unified TVET Program Registration and Accreditation System (UTPRAS) of TESDA. The list of TESD institutions with registered programs are available at www.tesda.gov.ph/inc/tvi/aspx.

4. Where can I find job vacancies?

- Phil-job.net (The Official Job Matching and Labor Market Information Portal of the Philippine Government)
- Public Employment Service Offices (PESOs) located in local government units (LGUs) in your area of residence
- Job search kiosks located in selected malls and DOLE Offices (POEA, TESDA, NRCO, DOLE Regional Offices, etc.)
- Thru Trabaho i-text Mo. Just text Trabaho and send to 2376 for Globe
- POEA website (www.poea.gov.ph/cgi-bin/JobVacancies/jobsMenu.asp)
- Job fairs
- Private employment agencies
- Other internet-based job boards
- Classified ads (newspaper, radio, TV)
- OFW organizations
- Job placement offices in schools
- Human Resources Development (HRD) units of establishments
- Referrals of family members, friends and acquaintances

To avoid being victims of illegal recruiters, kindly visit www.ble.dole.gov.ph, www.poea.gov.ph or the nearest DOLE Regional/Field Office in your area to check on the list of licensed job boards and private recruitment agencies. Do not transact with recruiters without valid licenses.

5. How can the Phil-job.net help me?

Visit www.phil-job.net which can be accessed anytime and submit your application online. Your skills can be matched to the job vacancies based on the qualification requirements of the employers. The Phil-job.net service is free.

6. What must I do if I want to work abroad?

- Prepare your resumé with detailed past and present work experiences, education and training. Make sure you have enough money to cover expenses in processing your documents such as birth and/or marriage certificates, high school/college diploma, passport, employment certificates, NBI clearance, 2 x 2 ID pictures, medical examinations, etc.

- Be guided by the 21-step Working Abroad Preparation Checklist of the POEA posted at www.poea.gov.ph or inquire at the nearest POEA, DOLE Regional/Field Offices and PESO.

- Attend a Pre-Employment Orientation Seminar (PEOS) at accredited establishments.

- Apply only at a licensed recruitment agency.

- Verify if the recruitment agency has an approved job order at the nearest office of the POEA in your area or visit www.poea.gov.ph.

B. Self-Employment
1. What assistance can DOLE offer if I want to engage in a livelihood undertaking?

- DOLE offers an Integrated Livelihood Program or the DILP. The DILP provides livelihood assistance to individuals, groups and communities such as training-cum production, starter kits, nego karts, and other services. For more details, visit the nearest DOLE Regional/Field Office, PESO or www.bwsc.dole.gov.ph.

- In case there is an established business, the DOLE can help in enriching your business through productivity training such as ISTIV-Bayanihan, service quality and green productivity. For more details, visit www.nwpc.dole.gov.ph.

- To ensure safety and health at the workplace, the DOLE has occupational safety and health (OSH) training and similar services. For more details, visit www.oshc.dole.gov.ph.
C. Skills Training and Upgrading of Qualifications

1. I want to gain the skills and competencies required by the job. What training and education services are available for students, out-of-school youths (OSYs), occupationally disabled workers (ODWs) and unemployed?

- The technical education and skills development (TESD) programs of TESDA, as the primary agency responsible for quality education and skills, are available through any of the following:

a. Institution-based training - TESD programs offered by public or private institutions, schools or training centers;

  b. Enterprise-based training - TESD programs implemented within companies through any of the following programs:
    o Dual Training System
    o Apprenticeship Program
    o Learnership Program

  c. Technology-based community training - TESD program conducted in the community by public or private TESD institutions in partnership with LGUs, NGOs and other government agencies.

Technical education and skills development is delivered through a network of about 4,500 TESD providers. The programs are geared towards acquisition of employable skills under the following sectors:

a. Automotive
b. Construction
c. Metals and Engineering
d. Heating, Ventilation and Air-Conditioning
e. Electronics
f. Agriculture and Fishery
g. Processed Food and Beverages
h. Tourism
i. Health and Other Community Development Services
j. Information and Communications Technology
k. Transport
l. Maritime
m. Garments
n. Footwear and Leathergoods
TESD programs should be registered under the Unified TVET Program Registration and Accreditation System (UTPRAS) of TESDA. The list of TESD institutions with registered programs is available at www.tesda.gov.ph/inc/tvi/aspx.

- The Special Program for the Employment of Students (SPES) of the Bureau of Workers with Special Concerns (BWSC) offers bridging employment for poor but deserving students, including OSYs and children of ODWs. Students enrolled in technical-vocational courses and tertiary education may avail of the program year-round while high school students may avail during summer vacation and Christmas breaks. For information on available employers, visit the nearest PESO and DOLE Regional and Field Offices. For more details, visit www.bwsc.dole.gov.ph.

2. What are the three (3) types of TVET Enterprise-based training programs that I can choose from?

The three (3) types of Enterprise-based training programs are:

a. Apprenticeship Program - where an applicant or “apprentice” and an employer are involved in a contract for a training and employment program on an apprenticeable occupation for a minimum period of four (4) months and a maximum of six (6) months.

b. Learnership Program - companies with TESDA-approved and registered learnership programs hire learners in a practical training on-the-job for approved learnable occupations for a period not more three (3) months.

c. Dual Training System (DTS) - is an instructional delivery system that involves two venues of learning: the school/training center and the company. A training plan is implemented by an accredited dual system educational institution/training center and accredited dual system of agricultural, industrial and business establishments.

For more details, visit www.tesda.gov.ph.
3. What scholarship programs can I avail of?

- TESDA offers scholarship programs, through the following:

  a. Training for Work Scholarship Program (TWSP). Beneficiaries must at least be 18 years old at the time the scholar finishes the training. Educational attainment is based on industry requirements or as prescribed in the relevant Training Regulations. Priority is given to the poor, unemployed and those without prior formal training.

  b. Private Education Student Financial Assistance Program (PESFA). Beneficiaries are high school graduates, at least 15 years old, and have taken the National Career Assessment Examination (NCAE) or Youth Profiling For Starring Careers (YP4SC).

Visit any of the TESDA Regional/Provincial/District Offices or TESDA Technology Institutes nearest their area or call TESDA hotline at 887-7777 or text 0917-4794370 and 0918-2738232. For more details, visit www.tesda.gov.ph.

- OWWA offers the following scholarships for the dependents of active OWWA members:

  a. Education for Development Scholarship Program (EDSP) - Scholarships for qualified dependents of OFWs consisting of a maximum of Php 60,000.00 per school year, leading to a four-to-five year baccalaureate course in any college or university.

  b. OFW Dependents Scholarship Program (OFWDSP) - Scholarships consisting of a maximum of Php 20,000.00 assistance per school year leading to a baccalaureate or associate degree in a state college or university. OFW parents must have a monthly salary of not more than $400.00.

  c. Education and Livelihood Assistance Program (ELAP) - Scholarships for survivors of deceased OFWs consisting of Php 5,000.00 for elementary, Php 8,000.00 for high school, Php 10,000.00 for college (per school year) and livelihood assistance of Php 15,000.00 for the surviving spouse.

  d. Tuloy-Aral Project (TAP) - An educational assistance consisting of US$ 100.00 financial support solicited from sponsors to augment the school needs of less fortunate elementary and high school children of former OFWs.

e. Tuloy-Kolehiyo - An extension of the TAP to pursue the tertiary level of education of the TAP scholars leading to either an associate or baccalaureate degree.

OWWA also offers short-term training programs for OFWs and their dependents:

a. Skills-for-Employment Scholarship Program (SESP) - Scholarships for attendance to short-term training program consisting of a maximum of Php 14,500.00 per course leading to the completion of a vocational or technical course in any school accredited by TESDA.

b. OWWA-Microsoft Tulay - A joint undertaking with Microsoft Corporation providing OFWs and their families free information and communication technology (ICT) skills training, the purpose of which is to bridge the communication gap through the use of internet between the OFW and his/her family.

For more details, visit www.owwa.gov.ph.

- The Bureau of Labor Relations (BLR) offers scholarships for dependents of members, organizers or officers of legitimate workers organizations under the Isabelo delos Reyes Scholarship component of the Workers Organization Development Program (WODP).

For more details, visit www.blr.dole.gov.ph.

4. My prospective job requires proficiency on language. Where can I enroll for language training?

TESDA has Language Skills Institutes (LSIs) which provide workplace language training that would enable the trainee to converse or communicate with supervisors and co-workers in the language commonly used in the country or company he/she will work in. The courses include familiarization on the culture, as well. There are 35 LSIs nationwide offering different languages, to wit:

- Japanese Language and Culture
- English Language
- Arabic Language and Saudi/Gulf Culture
- Korean Language and Culture
- Spanish Language for Different Vocations
- Mandarin Chinese Language and Culture

For more details, visit any of the TESDA Regional/ Provincial/ District Offices or TESDA Technology Institutes nearest their area or call TESDA hotline at 887-7777 or text 0917-4794370 and 0918-2738232. For more details, visit www.tesda.gov.ph.

5. I am a skilled worker. How can I avail of the competency assessment and certification?

TESDA conducts assessment through accredited assessors in accredited assessment centers. The National Certificate (NC) or Certificate of Competency (COC) is issued to those who pass the assessment.

Graduates/skilled workers can apply for competency assessment in any of the TESDA Provincial Offices nearest them. The list of accredited assessment centers is available at the TESDA website at www.tesda.gov.ph under Important Links.

6. What are the professions that require licensure examination?

To ensure only those qualified and competent will be registered and accepted into practice of professions, a licensure examination is needed. There are 46 professions that require licensure examination, as follows:

1. Accountancy
2. Aeronautical Engineering
3. Agricultural Engineering
4. Agriculture

THE CYCLE
The Cycle

Brief

For students, jobseekers and unemployed, the hunt for employment is a daunting task. However, empowered with the right information, this task may become more of a challenge than a duty to be hurdled. This Employment Guide for Students and Jobseekers offers tips on how to approach job search, whether it be for wage-employment, self-employment or further studies.

The topics are organized along three (3) options for employment: (1) wage employment, whether local or overseas; (2) self-employment; and (c) upgrading skills and qualifications.

The first option is Wage Employment which generally pertains to a formal set-up of having an employer and an employee type of relationship. Among the three (3) options, wage employment is perhaps the most complex. In this setting, the work engagement is governed by the employer who controls all things relating to an employee’s work, such as wages, work hours, leave and social benefits, among others.

The wage employment option covers the normal job cycle ranging from job application to termination of employment.

- Starting a Job
- During a Job
- Leaving a Job

The second option is Self-Employment which means setting up a business or entrepreneurial undertaking or practicing one’s chosen profession. Through one’s own initiative, risk-takers may want to set up and operate their own business or practice of profession. However, they must be ready to take on the numerous challenges and risks associated with it.
The self-employment option deals with the entrepreneurship or practice of profession cycle.

- Starting
- Managing
- Restoring

The last option is Skills Training and Upgrading of Qualifications. Students and jobseekers who wish to further their skills and qualifications can choose this option. The government offers various skills trainings, programs and scholarships for interested applicants.

Students and jobseekers will find valuable information on real life situations in the three (3) types of employment options.

Starting a Job
Topics at a Glance

Starting a Job

This section aids the jobseekers in pre-employment. It provides jobseekers with effective ways and means and/or basic knowledge on how to prepare for employment, whether for entry or re-entry; what to expect in the workplace; and what needs to be observed in the work environment.

A. Local

- Preparing for Employment
  - Writing a resumé
  - Getting ready for interview
  - Requirements for employment
- Expectations from employees and employers

B. Overseas

- Pre-Employment Orientation Seminar (PEOS)
- Pre-Departure Orientation Seminar (PDOS)
A. Local

1. How do I prepare for employment?
   - Write a good application letter and impressive resumé
   - Prepare for a job interview

2. How can I make a good application letter and impressive resumé?

   In writing an application letter:
   - Print in good quality paper, preferably a one-page, three-paragraph application only
   - Use simple English
   - Avoid using general application letter

   In writing a resumé:
   - Print in good quality paper consisting of two pages
   - Must first present most recent work experience, major accomplishments, education or training prior to personal information
   - May or may not include a photo in the resumé; if yes, applicant must be in presentable attire
   - Check grammar and spelling

3. What should I do before and during the job interview?

   Before
   - Know the company. Find time to research about the company, the industry and the position being applied for.
   - Groom to impress the interviewer/s. Dress professionally and conservatively. Wear clean and neatly pressed clothes. Sport a well-groomed hairstyle. Have clean and trimmed fingernails. Wear clean and polished shoes.

   During

5. What are the basics work ethics expected of me?

- Right values such as industrious, systematic, time-conscious, innovative and values-driven
- Competence
- Culture of safety and health
- Loyalty to the organization
- Integrity

6. What can I expect from the employer/organization?

- Payment of wages and wage-related benefits according to existing laws
- Safe and healthy working conditions
- Career growth and training opportunities
- Work-Life balance
7. What benefits can I expect if I get employed?

Wage and wage-related benefits can be expected.

- The mandated minimum wage varies according to region. For wages above the minimum, the company and the employees may agree on productivity or performance-based wages. For more details, visit www.nwpc.dole.gov.ph.

- For mandated wage-related benefits, employees are entitled to overtime pay, holiday pay, night shift differential pay, premium pay, and 13th month pay and leave benefits.

- The entitlement to minimum wage and wage-related benefits depends on various factors. For coverage and exceptions, visit www.bwc.dole.gov.ph.
B. Overseas

1. Where can I get information if I plan to work overseas?

You may attend the Pre-Employment Orientation Seminar (PEOS) conducted daily by the POEA Workers Education Division (WED), free of charge. The seminar will guide you to make a decision whether to pursue overseas or not, as the advantages and disadvantages of overseas employment are discussed. In the PEOS, you will also get information on the procedures and documentary requirements in applying for overseas, the expenses/cost of applying, job opportunities, and most importantly, the modus operandi of illegal recruiters to avoid being duped in the process.

For further information, call the POEA WED at 722-1196 or visit www.poea.dole.gov.ph.

2. What are the basic documents must I have as an OFW?

As an OFW, ensure that you have completed all necessary documents, such as:

- Passport (valid at least 6 months)
- Valid work/employment visa
- Employment contract processed by POEA
- Airline ticket
- Pre-Departure Orientation Seminar (PDOS) certificate
- Overseas Employment Certificate (OEC) or e-Receipt

It is advisable to leave copies of these documents to an entrusted family member, close relative or friend. You may also scan said documents and email them to your own personal account.

3. I am already scheduled to leave for work abroad. What do I still need to undergo?

You are required to attend a Pre-Departure Orientation Seminar (PDOS) conducted by the OWWA (free of charge) or by any PDOS provider accredited by OWWA. Be sure to secure a PDOS certificate after the seminar as this is required for the issuance of OEC.

For Household Service Workers (HSWs), they are also required to attend language and culture classes conducted by OWWA, free of charge.
For further information, you may call OWWA at 891-7601 to 19 or visit www.owwa.gov.ph.

4. What shall I do if the recruitment agency asked me to sign different contract from the first contract I signed? Is this legal?

It depends. This is called contract substitution, which is legal if the terms and conditions of the new contract are superior to the first contract. Otherwise, if the new contract is less beneficial to you, that is illegal.

If the recruiter forces you to sign an inferior contract before you leave the country, be sure to get a copy and file a complaint at the POEA Anti-Illlegal Recruitment Branch, or call the POEA Hotline at 722-1144 or 722-1155.

If this happens at the airport before your flight, immediately inform the Labor Assistance Center found in all international airports or any security personnel in the vicinity.

5. I have friends/family members who want to send a package. What shall I do?

Do not accept packages from anyone. Should you accept a package from friends/family members, make sure that the package does not contain anything illegal such as illegal drugs, firearms and ammunitions, contrabands, pornographic materials, fake signature items, pirated DVDs and programs, food prohibited especially in the Middle East, etc. As a precautionary measure, inspect all contents in front of the sender before sealing and including it in your baggage.

10. What are the hazards that I may be exposed to at the workplace?

There are situations, conditions and activities in the workplace that may expose you to hazards resulting to injury, illness or even death. Generally, there are two (2) kinds of workplace hazards:

a. safety hazards, which can cause direct harm like cuts, broken limbs and burns, arising from:

   - poor housekeeping
   - inappropriate and defective tools
   - sharp and pointed hand tools
   - hot surfaces and splashes from hot liquids
   - unguarded moving or rotating machines
   - electrical hazards
   - vehicles, such as forklifts, cranes and trucks
b. health hazards, which result to illnesses and diseases and may take time to manifest in the worker’s body, namely:

- physical hazards (heat/temperature, vibration, noise and radiation)
- chemical hazards (acids, mists, fumes, vapor)
- biological (virus, bacteria, molds, pests)
- ergonomic stressors (risk factors for work-related musculoskeletal disorders - fitting the tasks to the worker)
- psychosocial hazards like stress

For more details, visit www.oshc.dole.gov.ph.

11. How will I be protected from these hazards?

There are three control measures to address the various hazards, as follows:

a. Engineering Control - includes substitution of materials/equipment, modification of work process, maintenance of equipment, isolation, wet method and ventilation

b. Administrative Control - includes reduction of work periods, adjusting work schedules, employee information and training, job rotation, education of supervisors, housekeeping and maintenance

c. Personal Protective Equipment - examples are gloves, safety goggles, hard hats, earplugs or earmuffs, safety shoes, masks/respirators, and face shields

For more details, visit www.oshc.dole.gov.ph.

12. How can I contribute to a safety and healthy workplace?

- Obey the company’s safety and health policies and programs;
- Be part of the mandatory Safety and Health Committee (SHC) of the company;
- Avoid unsafe/unhealthy acts and conditions. Unsafe/unhealthy acts are man-made violations of commonly accepted safe work procedure or standard operating procedure. (e.g., not wearing appropriate personal protective equipment or PPEs, horseplaying and operating a machine/equipment without authority). Unsafe/unhealthy conditions arise from any harmful work situation where an accident or illness is likely to happen. These include unguarded machines, poor ventilation, inadequate illumination, dusty workplaces, octopus wirings, among others. For more details, visit www.oshc.dole.gov.ph.

13. If I got sick or injured and I can’t work, will I be compensated?

Yes. The Employees’ Compensation Program covers employees who suffered from work-related sickness or injuries which resulted to disability or death. Employees’ belonging to both the public and private sectors (formal sector) are compulsorily covered under the EC Program.

If you suffered from work-related sickness or injury, do the following:

a. Get medical attention if you need it.
b. Report the incident to your employer immediately.
c. File an Employees Compensation (EC) claim at the Social Security System (SSS).

For more details, visit www.ecc.gov.ph.

14. What safety and health training and services could I get as an employee?

Companies are mandated to provide its employees with relevant safety and health support training programs and services, e.g., basic occupational safety and health courses, work procedures, workplace environment monitoring, injuries and sickness surveillance and monitoring, and provision of proper personal protective equipment (PPE), among others.

15. What are my rights as an employee?

Employees are entitled to:

- Just and humane conditions of work;
- Security of tenure;
- Self-organization which is the right to join or not to join a union/organization.
In relation to the exercise of the right to self-organization, employees may engage in collective bargaining with the employer; peaceful concerted activities according to law; participate in policy and decision-making processes affecting rights and benefits as may be provided by law; and labor education through seminars, dialogues and information, education and communication materials.

16. What are my obligations/responsibilities as an employee?

Employees have the obligations/responsibility to:

- Work in exchange of compensation under management control;
- Follow company rules and policies;
- Observe proper care in the use of facilities; and
- Avoid wastages and contribute to productivity (e.g. waste of time, ideas, materials and supplies, machinery and equipment, manpower, waste due to accidents, waste due to non-cooperation and defective workmanship causing breakage or spoilage).

In relation to the exercise of the right to self-organization, union member-employees must follow the provision of union’s Constitution-and-By-Law (CBL); observe duty to negotiate in good faith; follow the procedure on strikes and lockouts and submit to the intervention of DOLE if necessary; observe good faith and recommend reasonable and sensible solutions to issues submitted before the Labor-Management Committee.

17. What are the obligations/responsibilities of management to its employees?

- Pay the employees as well as give all other benefits due them under the law and the collective bargaining agreement (CBA);
- Respect the rights of employees;
- Provide the employees with safe and healthy working places with protective gears/gadgets/devices;
- Implement the company rules and regulations;
- Look into the welfare of the employees; and
- Have a grievance mechanism at the workplace.
18. If I have a grievance, where can I air out my concern?

Grievance arising from employer-employee relationship can be raised to the grievance machinery or in any similar workplace-based dispute settlement mechanism/process, such as Disciplinary Committee or Peer Review Committee, if there is any.

If there is no workplace-based dispute settlement mechanism/process, a request for assistance under the Single Entry Approach (SEnA) can be filed at the DOLE Regional/Field Office where the company or workplace is located.

For more details, visit www.blr.dole.gov.ph or www.ncmb.ph.

19. I am an employed professional. Is there an opportunity for me to enhance my knowledge and skills?

Yes. The Professional Regulatory Commission (PRC) offers a Continuing Professional Program. It refers to the inculcation, assimilation and acquisition of knowledge, skills, proficiency, and ethical and moral values, after the initial registration of a professional that raises and enhances the professionals’ technical skills and competence. See Practice of Profession.
B. Overseas

1. Do I still need to get a work permit once I arrive at the country of destination where I intend to work?

The laws on foreign employment differ in many countries but generally the employee is already issued a work permit applied for by his/her employer prior to his/her flight to the country of destination.

2. Where will I go if I have important concerns regarding the labor policies and programs for OFWs or when I encounter a problem or conflict at my workplace?

For employment-related and other problems, you may seek advice and/or assistance from the Philippine Overseas Labor Office (POLO). The POLO is the overseas arm of the DOLE in the implementation of the Philippine labor policies and programs for the protection and promotion of the welfare and interests of Filipinos working abroad.

3. What training programs are being offered by the POLO that I may avail if I want to enhance or upgrade my skills while working abroad?

Inquire at the POLO regarding capability building services they offer such as computer literacy programs, language, and personality development and value formation trainings. POLO may also provide information on available trainings being offered by the host government.

4. What are the other services provided by POLO?

The services provided by POLO are handling labor and welfare cases, entertaining phone-in or walk-in inquiries, employment contract verification, issuance of OECs for vacationing workers, enrollment and renewal of OWWA memberships, and community outreach programs.
5. My employer allowed me to go on vacation. What should I take into consideration?

Make sure to have the following:

- Passport must be valid for at least 6 months prior to your flight;
- Visa must not expire while at vacation;
- Employment contract verified by the POLO;
- OEC; and
- Roundtrip ticket.

6. Can I or my employer pre-terminate my contract?

Yes. The employment contract enumerates the valid grounds wherein you or your employer may pre-terminate it. Additional grounds for pre-termination are also stipulated in the labor laws of the host country. If you think that your employer has illegally removed you from work, you may request for advice and or assistance from the POLO.
Leaving a Job
Topics at a Glance
Leaving a Job

This section serves as a guide for the separation, resignation, retirement or termination of a worker from his/her workplace. It contains basic facts on the grounds for just, authorized and illegal termination, and the benefits or legal remedies or solutions that the workers could avail.

Both local and overseas workers are guided under this section on termination of employment.

A. Local

   - Filing of Complaints
   - Separation Package

B. Overseas
   - Programs for Returning OFWs
   - Reintegration Services
   - Social Benefits
A. Local

1. Can I be terminated from my job?

Yes. An employee is secured in his/her job but the employment can be terminated if there are causes and observance of notice and hearing requirement. Causes for termination are classified as just or authorized causes.

Just causes are the following:

a. serious misconduct;
b. willful disobedience;
c. gross and habitual neglect of duty;
d. fraud or breach of trust;
e. commission of a crime or offense against the employer, his family or representative; and
f. other similar causes.

The authorized causes are:

a. installation of labor-saving devices;
b. redundancy;
c. retrenchment to prevent losses;
d. closure and cessation of business;
e. disease/illness; and
f. other similar causes.

Notice and hearing required for just cause termination are as follows:

a. First written notice. - The first written notice to be served on the employees must contain the grounds for termination and a directive that the employees are given the opportunity to submit their written explanation at least five (5) calendar days from receipt of the notice.

b. Hearing required. - After serving the first notice, the employers must schedule and conduct a conference wherein the employees will be given the opportunity to explain and clarify their defenses to the charge against them, to present evidence in support of their defenses. A trial type hearing is not required unless requested by the employees.

c. Second written notice. - After determining the termination of employment is justified, the employers must serve the employees a written notice of termination indicating all circumstances involving the charge against the employees.

For authorized cause termination, there must be at least one (1) month notice before the intended date of termination to the DOLE Regional Office and to the affected employees.

2. If I were illegally dismissed, where can I file my complaint?

File a request for assistance under the Single Entry Approach (SEnA) at the nearest DOLE Regional/Field Office or Regional Branch of the National Conciliation and Mediation Board (NCMB) or Regional Arbitration Branch of the National Labor Relations Commission (NLRC) for assistance, conciliation-mediation, or arbitration.

SEnA refers to an administrative approach to provide a speedy, impartial inexpensive and accessible settlement procedure of all labor issues or conflicts to prevent them from ripening into full blown disputes. Conciliation-mediation process shall be utilized as immediate intervention to effect amicable settlement among the differing parties.

3. Do I need a lawyer if I decide to file a labor case before the NLRC?

No. However, only the following labor cases can be filed before the Regional Arbitration Branches of the NLRC:

a. Unfair labor practice (ULP) cases;

b. Termination disputes (or illegal dismissal cases);

c. If accompanied with a claim for reinstatement, those cases that workers may file involving wages, rates of pay, hours of work and other terms and conditions of employment;

d. Claims for actual, moral, exemplary and other forms of damages arising from employer-employee relations;

e. Cases arising from any violation of Article 264 of the Labor Code, as amended, including questions involving the legality of strikes and lockouts;

f. Except claims for employees compensation not included in the next succeeding paragraph, social security, medicare and maternity benefits, all other claims arising from employer-employee relations, including those of persons in domestic or household service, involving an amount exceeding Five Thousand Pesos (P5,000.00), whether or not accompanied with a claim for reinstatement;

g. Wage distortion disputes in unorganized establishments not voluntarily settled by the parties pursuant to Republic Act No. 6627;

h. Enforcement of compromise agreements when there is non-compliance by any of the parties pursuant to Article 227 of the Labor Code, as amended;

i. Money claims arising out of employer-employee relationship or by virtue of any law or contract, involving Filipino workers for overseas deployment, including claims for actual, moral, exemplary and other forms of damages as provided by Section 10 of R.A. No. 8042, as amended by R.A. No. 10022;

j. Contested cases under the exception clause of Article 128(b) of the Labor Code, as amended by R.A. 7730; and

k. Other cases as may be provided by law.

4. Until when can I file a labor case?

- For Unfair Labor Practice, file the case within one (1) year from the time the acts complained of were committed;

- For Money Claims, file the case within three (3) years from accrual of the cause of action;

- For Illegal Dismissal, file the case within four (4) years from the date of termination; and

- For Criminal Offenses penalized under the Labor Code, file the case within three (3) years from the commission thereof.

For more details, visit www.nlrconline.com or www.nlrc.dole.gov.ph.

5. What separation package can I expect upon my termination?

- Earned wages and benefits;

- Separation pay (for authorized cause termination); and

- Benefits provided under CBA or long standing company practice.
B. Overseas

1. With my contract about to expire, what should I do?

If you and your employer agreed to renew your contract, you need to renew your work/resident visa and OWWA membership.

If you decide not to renew, you will need to cancel your work/residence visa and in some countries, you may need to apply for exit visa. Your employer will provide you with your return ticket. Be sure to claim your end of service benefits, if any.

2. I have saved up money for the future of my family. How and where can I invest it?

There are many ways to make your money earn. One is to invest in stocks, bonds and treasury notes and similar instruments. The money can also be invested in time deposit at any bank to earn more interests.

You may also engage in livelihood or entrepreneurial activities. OWWA and NRCO have programs for OFWs, such as:

   a. Business Counseling;

   b. Techno skills and capacity skills training; and

   c. Entrepreneurship/Micro-finance development.

3. I plan to establish a business when I get back to the Philippines but I only have limited capital. Where can I apply for a loan?

You may apply for a loan under the Two Billion Pesos OFW Reintegration Program of the National Reintegration Center for OFWs (NRCO) subject to the following pre-qualifying requirements:

   a. OFW must be an OWWA member;

   b. OFW has completed the Entrepreneurship Development Training (EDT) conducted by OWWA-RWOs; and
c. OFW is of good credit standing.

The loanable amount is from a minimum of P300,000.00 to a maximum amount of Php 2Million with an initial interest of 7.5% per annum. Interested applicants may proceed to the nearest OWWA-Regional Welfare Offices which has jurisdiction over his/her permanent residence.

POEA Programs and Services

1. Anti-Illlegal Recruitment (AIR) / Anti-Trafficking in Person (TIP) Program

   - AIR / TIP Seminars/ Orientations
     AIR TIP seminar is an information campaign strategy that aims to intensify the fight against illegal recruiters and traffickers. It aims to enable the POEA to establish linkages and train LGUs, PESOs, law enforcement groups and Public Prosecutors, academe and local NGOs to implement and sustain the campaign.
Applicable laws, rules, regulations, modus operandi and situationer on illegal recruitment and trafficking in persons comprise the modules of this one whole day training.

- Pre-Employment Orientation Seminar (PEOS)
  The PEOS is a flagship program of the Administration to help would-be workers make a decision whether to pursue overseas employment or not. It is a tool for worker protection and empowerment as it provides relevant information on the overview of the overseas employment program, procedures and documentary requirements, advantages and disadvantages of overseas employment, Philippine licensed agencies, modus operandi of illegal recruiters, detection of illegal recruitment activities, and the government services available to overseas job applicants and hired workers. The PEOS is given free of charge to the participants.

2. Adjudication and Arbitration of OFW Cases
   It aims to preserve employment that promote harmonious and cooperative worker-employee relations, enhance collective bargaining and expeditious and fair resolution of labor disputes.

3. Overseas Employment Contracts Verification Program
   It aims to ensure job availability and fair and just terms and conditions of employment to protect worker’s rights at the local and overseas front through compliance with general labor standards.

4. Labor Market Information (LMI)
   - Global OFW Mapping and Profiling
     Global OFW Mapping and Profiling is a strategic program which aims to provide information on the global presence of OFWs worldwide. It involves the mapping of landbased OFWs (New Hires and Rehires) deployed in major destination critical markets. Deployment data used for mapping are disaggregated by province/city, by gender, by age and by skill.

   - Manpower Registration
     It is a system of registration of landbased workers and maintaining a registry of qualified applicants in accordance with the manpower requirements of foreign employers/principals. The POEA E-Registration is being used as a tool for an effective and responsive overseas employment skills registry.

5. Capability Building Program for Employment Service Providers

- Pre-Licensing Orientation Seminar (PLOS)
The Pre-Licensing Orientation Seminar (PLOS) is a one-day seminar which owners, partners, president or chief executive officers of companies, who are applying for an overseas recruitment agency license are required to attend. It is also a requirement for newly appointed branch managers of licensed recruitment agencies. The seminar aims to provide participants with an overview of the overseas recruitment program, discuss the rules and regulations that govern recruitment and make them aware of their vital role in ensuring the protection and welfare of the overseas Filipino workers.

- Continuing Agency Education (CAEP) Seminar
The seminar was envisioned primarily to further professionalize and improve the technical capabilities and moral values of the officers and staff of all licensed landbased and seabased agencies to better manage and operate the agency and ensure the deployment of secured and gainfully employed workers. It also serves as a venue for regular dialogues and updates on policies, rules and regulations and government programs on overseas employment. It was conceptualized to be attended by all the officers and staff of licensed landbased and seabased agencies as one of the requirements for the renewal of license.

6. Overseas Employment Facilitation Program

- Foreign Principals Accreditation/Registration
This refers to the accreditation/registration of a foreign person/employer, company, partnership or corporation or foreign placement agency whose documents has been evaluated, approved and entered into the official records of the Administration as a legal entity granted with an authority to recruit and hire Filipino workers through a licensed recruitment agency for overseas employment.

Validity of Registration/Accreditation is four (4) years unless sooner revoked or cancelled by the Administration on valid grounds. Provisional Registration may also be granted for a period of ninety (90) days for a principal that substantially meets the registration requirements.

- Contracts Processing

This refers to the processing of employment contracts/documentation of workers in accordance with the established rules and procedures. The Overseas Employment Certificates (OEC) serves as Travel Exit Clearance which the POEA issues to worker as proof of having gone through proper documentation. Workers can be documented in POEA as Agency Hires, Government Hires, Name Hires/Direct Hires and Returning Workers (Balik-Manggagawa).

Processing of Agency Hired Workers can be done through the Regular Processing, Contract E-Submission System or the In-House Processing Program. Recruitment agencies shall be responsible for providing every worker a copy of his/her employment contract. The individual employment contract is based on the Master Employment Contract approved upon registration/accreditation of the principal/employer.

- Job Order Monitoring

This refers to the process of review of the present status of the flow/movement, utilization of the existing job order/s approved per foreign principal accredited or registered with licensed recruitment agencies.

- Market Development and Management

This involves a research and monitoring of countries/markets for the purpose of facilitating employment opportunities for OFWs and setting minimum standards of hiring and employment terms and conditions as well as protection of Overseas Filipino Workers through the forging of multilateral/bilateral labor agreements with other countries. It also includes the conduct of studies and provision of technical inputs to support policy development.

7. Balik-Manggagawa Program

It is a program for the issuance of E-receipt / overseas employment certificate which serves as the travel exit clearance of balik-manggagawa workers or workers-on-leave. Balik-manggagawa or worker-on-leave refers to an Overseas Filipino Worker who is on vacation or on leave and is returning to the same employer. Balik-manggagawa may be classified as any of the following: a) worker-on-leave who is on vacation or on leave from employment under a valid and existing employment contract and who is returning to the same employer, regardless of any change in jobsite to finish the remaining unexpired portion of the contract; b) rehire who is a worker who was rehired by the same employer after finishing his/her contract and who is returning to the same employer, regardless of a change in jobsite; c) POLO registered worker who is a returning worker whose employment contract was not processed with the POEA but was subsequently verified and registered with the Philippine Overseas Labor Office (POLO) in the jobsite and who is returning to the same employer either as worker-on-leave or rehire, regardless of any change in jobsite. The OECs can be secured at the POEA main office, POEA regional centers in Luzon, Visayas and Mindanao, POEA regional extension units/satellite offices, Labor Assistance Center in case of five (5) days vacation and the Philippine Overseas Labor Office.

BLES Programs and Services

1. Data Banking Services. The BLES maintains a Data Bank Unit that services walk-in researchers, special requests for statistics on labor through fax, e-mail and snail mail; sells its regular publications and gives statistical advice and referrals to related data source agencies.

2. Technical Assistance on Statistics. The Bureau provides technical services/advice to other units in the DOLE on planning and development of survey design, operations, and data analysis as well as systems design and development of statistical information systems. It also refers clients to experts in the field of statistics, both individuals and institutions.

3. Statistical Capacity Building. The BLES also sets out advocacy activities aimed at educating its clients for better appreciation and utilization of labor and employment statistics. It has developed the LearnStat (Learning Statistics the Easy Way) which is an orientation on key labor and employment statistics covering basic concepts, their definitions, measurements, uses and interpretations; data sourcing; and basic tools in statistics.

4. Statistical Research Collaboration. The Bureau undertakes statistical research and development projects in collaboration with other data producing and research agencies to improve or update the methodologies for production of quality statistics, among others. Some of these projects are the Rethinking of the Labor Force Survey (2010-2011) and the Development of a Design for the Conduct of a National Migration Survey (2002) with the National Statistics Office and Statistical Research and Training Center.

5. Standards Setting and Prescription. One of the major tasks of the Bureau is to develop, prescribe and monitor the use of statistical standards, nomenclatures, classification systems and methodologies for the collection, processing, presentation and analysis of labor and employment data in the DOLE. This monitoring function is carried out through the DOLE Inter-Agency Committee on Statistical Matters (IACSM) wherein statistical issues and concerns are discussed in its regular quarterly meetings. The BLES provides technical assistance in the review and revision of performance indicators. It also has developed the Data Quality Assessment System (DQAS) in the Department to ensure the generation of quality data both from surveys and administrative records.

THE ENTREPRENEURSHIP OR PRACTICE OF PROFESSION CYCLE
Starting
Topics at a Glance
Starting

For those who wish to start their own business or practice their profession, this section provides ample guide and tips for setting up a business, including the right attitude, points to consider and steps to undergo to facilitate the procedures in pursuing such undertaking.

Also included in this section are the different agencies that could provide assistance to starters in establishing a livelihood or enterprise.

A. Entrepreneurship
   - Planning or Starting a Business
   - Agencies / Institutions and Assistance which can Contribute in Setting up a Business

B. Practice of Profession
   - Planning or Starting a Practice of Profession
   - Professional Ethical Standards
A. Entrepreneurship Cycle

1. How will I start a business? What are the steps in starting a business?

   ▪ Make a self-assessment whether you have the capabilities, abilities and experiences needed to successfully run a business:

     - Commitment to start and operate your own business
     - Readiness to take calculated risks
     - Willingness to pursue an activity even against obstacles
     - Readiness to take things into your hands
     - Can work under pressure
     - Can adapt to changing needs of business
     - Can separate family duties from business obligations
     - Can deal with crisis situations
     - Enjoy full support from family

   ▪ Start with an idea

     In starting a business, begin with an idea of what business you want to enter into. To have a greater chance of success in your business, be sure of the following:

     - That you know the inside and out of your idea
     - That your idea will have a market to enter into
     - That it will fit the needs of your target customers

   ▪ Make a business plan

     After you have conceptualized the idea on how to start your business, the next thing to do is to prepare a business plan. In writing this plan, it is important to understand the market and the industry, as well as the competition you will be involved in. A business plan consists of the following:

     - Marketing
     - Production
     - Organization and management
     - Finance

     Tips: If you don’t know how to write your own business plan, you may read books or ask help from someone who knows how to make. Also, participation to Start and Improve Your Business training is highly recommended.

   ▪ Know your legal responsibilities
· Raise money/capital

Your business will not operate without sufficient money or capital. The best way to raise money is from your own savings or by borrowing money from your friends or lending institutions.

2. What agencies/institutions could provide assistance in setting up a business?

- Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) - training on entrepreneurship development, occupational safety and health, productivity improvement, labor standards; working capital; business advisory; counseling and mentoring; facilitation to social security coverage; registration of workers’ associations/organizations; accreditation of co-partners
- Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA) - skills/technical-vocational training
- Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) - business registration, product improvement, designs, labeling, etc.
- Department of Science and Technology (DOST) - technology, product development
- Department of Agriculture (DA)/Department of Agrarian Reform (DAR) - training on agribusiness
- Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) - livelihood assistance
- Department of Finance (DOF) - micro-insurance services
- Local Government Unit (LGU) - business permit and license
- Public Employment Service Office (PESO) - facilitation, counseling and mentoring
- Cooperative Development Authority (CDA) - cooperative registration and development
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) - business registration for corporation, partnership
- Microfinance/banking institutions - start-up capital
B. Practice of Profession

1. As a licensed professional, I want to set up my own professional practice. How will I go about it?

Practice of profession can be done through professional association with colleagues in the same profession, solo or in partnership. It can be carried out on consultancy, per client or on retainership agreement. The following tips may be useful:

- Prepare a business plan to have an idea on how much is needed to start the practice.
- Rent or share an office space or work at home.
- Get a business license from the LGU and the DTI. If you are going to put up a partnership, secure the necessary registration from the SEC.
- Have your business office tax mapped.
- Know your legal responsibilities.
- Advertise in the newspapers or through friends and colleagues. Distribute business cards and brochures.

2. Do I need to get accreditation before I can practice my profession?

The practice of profession in Accountancy, Civil Engineering, Chemistry, Environmental Planning, Landscape Architecture, Agricultural Engineering and Maritime are governed by Professional Regulatory Laws that require registration and accreditation of firms, companies, partnerships, corporations, or associations engaged in the practice of profession. For more details, visit www.prc.gov.ph.

3. Is there a Code of Ethical Standards for licensed professionals?

Yes. The Code of Ethics prescribes the behavior of professionals in serving and protecting clientele, colleagues, and the society at large. The Codes of Ethics by profession are available for viewing at www.prc.gov.ph.
Managing
Topics at a Glance

Managing

Entrepreneurship does not end successfully in being able to set up a business of one’s choosing. The more challenging stage of entrepreneurship is keeping the business competitive and productive.

Hence, relevant information on managing an enterprise are included in this section to guide starters on what can be done and what agencies could help in keeping a business and raising its productivity.

A. Entrepreneurship

- Managing a Business
- Work Improvements
- Incentivizing Compliance Program

B. Practice of Profession

- Continuing Professional Development / Ethical Practices
- Monitoring Compliance
- Legal Services
A. Entrepreneurship

1. How can I sustain my business?
   - Consistently apply the learnings acquired in the entrepreneurship training particularly in the 4 major areas: (1) marketing; (2) production; (3) organization and management; and (4) finance;
   - Ensure continuous business improvement through product research and development, human resource development, participation in business fora, trade exhibits/livelihood fairs, training/retraining and retooling, adoption of appropriate technology, cost-cutting measures, and climate change adaptation;
   - Strengthen alliance-building, linkaging, networking; and
   - Avail of social security coverage/services, e.g., SSS, PhilHealth, Pag-Ibig, Red Cross, and micro-insurance

For more details, visit www.bwsc.dole.gov.ph.

2. Are there some tips which can help me in starting and running my business?
   - Start small.
     Start with one stall or product and with yourself as owner-worker if possible.
   - Keep your overhead low (control your spending activity).
     Spend first only on those things which are of necessities.
   - Stick to your plan.
     Follow your plan. Every day you organize your business, plan what you have to do and accomplish each day.
   - Have a deadline.
     Give yourself a deadline, quotas and deliverables. Check your own progress as well as of your workers if you have.
• Develop great work ethics.

Create a culture of excellence with your people. Whatever you look for in your people, show them yourself first.

• Decide quickly.

Decide quickly but be sure to make wise decisions.

• Do something better and differently

Be innovative. Try to know what are ‘in’ in the market in order for you to meet the needs of the customer.
